Three Men, Two Situations, One Result Luke 12:12-21 July 31, 2016

Introduction

What did we learn?

What would you take?

Situation One: Two brothers fighting over their inheritance.

Why get Jesus involved?

The historical context:

Situation Two: A man understands neither the depth nor purpose of his blessings.

His focus: himself!

A little game of, "What if..."

The curse of our sinful human nature is self-centeredness.

Look what happens when possessions become more important than relationships.

Do we miss seeing the real blessings God has laid before us?

The goal is to become "rich toward God." How do we do that?
